Sir;

In reply to your Official Memo: No 591 of the 21st Ultimo, forwarding for report a petition from Narsimiah and others of Anikal, I have the honor to relate as follows:

2. The tax on Bangle trade was for the first time imposed on three individuals in the year Pramadu (1879-80) at the lowest rate of Rs 2-- -- as under the orders contained in the late Chief Commissioner's Proceedings No 5816-27/286 of 2nd February 1881:

the levy of trade tax was made compulsory in addition to house tax in the Minor Municipalities. These three men have been paying this trade tax every year.

3. In Vishnu 14 more persons were charged with this tax and in the current year 6 more.

4. These 20 men have been withholding payment of the tax since it was imposed.

5. It may be mentioned that several artizans carry on their profession in their houses and not in so called Shops; and as any relaxation in the case of the Petitioners will no doubt be claimed by other such tax payers to be conceded in their case will be liable to submit the matter for orders

6. The petition received with the docket under reply is returned.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Sir,

In returning the petition of Narasimia and others of Anekal Taluk, received with your Memo No. 295 of 29th Ultimo, I have the honor to inform you that these persons trade in bangles, and so, a Fuse of Rs 2/ has been imposed upon each of them as Mohatarfa. On a previous occasion, these had prayed for the exemption of the Fuse, but as it was collected in all the Taluks of the District their prayer was not granted and the imposition was approved of by Government in Dewan's Proceedings No. 255 of 26th April last, in pursuance of which orders were issued to the Amildar to recover the arrears due by these men. The Amildar has, however, been directed to stop coercive measures till the question is finally settled, as directed.

D. No. 839 Dated 4th March 1890.

To
The Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to request the favor of an early reply to this Office letter No. 382 (443) dated 6th September 1888 asking for the settlement of the question of recovering the arrears of taxe imposed on Narsimah and others of Anekal Taluk, trading in bangles. The arrears are accumulating unnecessarily and hamper the accounts. The imposition of a trade taxe on an article, which the manufacturer himself sells is not quite in accordance with the principles which may be evolved out of the present unsatisfactory Mokatapa system. A higher rate of house-taxe for such men will be supported by precedents.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your Most Obedient Servant
Rathnum Ro Rao.
